

The Ten Commandments

This week we're looking at the commandment #7:

“You shall not commit adultery.” (Exodus 20:14 NET)

As we continue with the desert saga, we learned some important things about the Israelites, Moses and God:

The Israelites had been in the desert for nearly 40 years. A lot happened while they were in the desert and God repeatedly proved Himself faithful and faithful to His word. Here, nearing the end of their time in the desert, we again found the Israelites complaining about wanting/needng some water.

Moses went to God as he should.

What were God's instructions to Moses?

He was to _____ to the rock (Numbers 20:8)

What were Moses' actions?

He _____ the rock (Numbers 20:1)

This action of Moses upset God enough that God told Moses neither he nor Aaron would enter the Promised Land.

What did Moses do that was so wrong?

Moses _____ God. He did not trust God enough to honor Him in the sight of the people. (Numbers 20:12)

Moses spent much time and effort protecting God's reputation and in a fit of anger, he was the one who misrepresented God. This action would cost Moses dearly.

What are your actions saying about God? Are you representing Him well?

Today's commandment tells us to be faithful when we marry. As children, we should practice being faithful by keeping the promises we make to our friends and our family. As adults, we should remain faithful to our spouses because we made a promise to our spouse and because it is the right thing to do. God is the perfect picture of faithfulness to His promises. Today's family activity will highlight some of God's promises.
