

Reseller Agreement for Biblical Studies Foundation products

Introduction: Bible.org is a ministry and is the home of the NET Bible project. We sell our products online at bible.org with a “No Discount” policy, meaning we want every person who purchases a NET Bible or other bible.org products to know they got a fair price and do not have to shop elsewhere for a better price. It is important for our resellers of the NET Bible and other bible.org products to honor this “Ministry First” model and pricing policy.

Reseller Acknowledgment: We acknowledge the “No Discount Policy” of the Biblical Studies Press. We understand that the reseller brochure we’ve been given represents the retail price of the NET Bible and other products. We will not discount these products for any reason to any customer, student or employee. We understand that if this no discount policy is violated it will likely result in our reseller privileges being revoked and we will no longer receive the reseller discount for Biblical Studies Press products.

All NET Bibles (First Edition, Reader's Edition) come with a free Companion CD. The partial description of the contents of this cd is located in the online store.

The NET Bible is the first Bible in history with extensive Translators' Notes; we considered what kind of edition would be appropriate for those who want to use and perhaps keep it as an important collector's edition for their library. It is thin and beautiful, with a page size of 6x9", only 1.8" thick, gilded page edges, Smyth-sewn binding and marker ribbon, bookmark and soft leather cover. Consider the upgrade to new original genuine leather (NET Cordova tan) or the NEW Black Genuine Leather (not pictured)
