PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following:

- 1. What was the most overwhelming assignment you ever undertook? How did things turn out?
- 2. Read Rom 1:17 and Hebrews 11:7. What was the basis of Noah's righteous standing before God? Upon what basis were you made righteous? Do you feel righteous? Why or why not?
- 3. Throughout the flood narrative, we find that Noah consistently "did all that the Lord commanded him." What did Noah gain by obeying God? What would he have lost by disobeying God? How do you think the Lord would describe your life?
- 4. The Bible tells us that the animals came to Noah -- he didn't have to go out and round them up. What insights can you glean from this simple truth for life and ministry?
- 5. What is the primary task God has given you to accomplish in your life right now? On a scale of 1-10 (10 being the highest), how faithful have you been to that call? How can we, as your fellow believers, encourage you in your mission?
- 6. Take a moment to thank God for His promised deliverance and ask Him to help you live "not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil."
