PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following:

- 1. Share a few thoughts about your father. What is/was he like? What do you admire about him? How are you like him?
- 2. God made some remarkable promises to Isaac in verses 3-5. Were they based on Isaac's obedience or on something else? [Hint: 1 Cor 1:26-31, Titus 3:3-6, Rom 9:16 and Eph 2:1-10].
- 3. Compare Gen 12:10-20, 20:1-18 and 26:7-11. What similarities do you see? What differences? How do you account for this repeated pattern of sin? Genetics? Modeling? Instinct?
- 4. How do you respond when you are caught in a sin? 1) Denial? 2) Blaming? 3) Confession and repentance? [Read Prov 28:13]
- 5. Abraham and Isaac's sin of lying and failure to trust God should have been punished, but instead God prospered them. How do you explain this? What does this teach you about God?
- 6. Though God reaffirmed His covenant promises to Isaac in verses 2-5 and 24, the promises weren't fulfilled without opposition from God's enemies. What does this teach you about the Christian life? About your own challenges?
- 7. Read 1 Cor 11:1. Ask the Holy Spirit for the wisdom and power to live a life, like Paul, that can serve as a model for your children or those who follow in the footsteps of your life.
