PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following:

1. If you could know just one thing about your future, what would you want to know? Why?
2. How would you characterize your past (character, actions, words). What do you see in the future if you persevere in your current direction and priorities?
3. Knowing the power of a parent's blessing (or curse), what will you do to ensure that your child(ren) are helped by your words rather than hindered? [Hint: Read Eph 4:29]
4. Read Gal 6:7-8 and Jeremiah 29:11. How can these two verses be reconciled? Can God bless a believer in spite of poor past performance? If so, how? Support your answer with the Bible.
5. Take time to become a "Prophetic Parent".
  - a. Ask God for insight into your child's life - Jer 33:3
  - b. Journal the things that God reveals to you - Is 30:8
  - c. Share them with your child in the form of a blessing
6. Take a few minutes to thank God for the people in your life who have spoken prophetically into your life. Then ask the Holy Spirit for opportunities to speak words of life, encouragement strength and power into the lives of those around you.
