PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following:

- 1. Do you tend to be a rigid or lackadaisical planner when it comes to goal-setting? What are the pros and cons of each? What do you think you need to do to achieve an appropriate balance?
- 2. Do you have written goals for your spiritual and family life? If not, set time aside this week to prayerfully set realistic goals for each of the following areas: 1) Your relationship with God 2) your relationship with your family 3) your relationship with believers and 4) your relationship with unbelievers.
- 3. Below are a series of suggestions that will be helpful as you establish God-honoring objectives for this coming year:
 - 1. Ask God what He wants you to focus on this year.
 - 2. Remember to keep Christ the focus of your goals.
 - 3. Cut your lofty goals in half.
 - 4. Be specific about your goals.
 - 5. Write down how you will do it.
 - 6. Don't make too many resolutions.
 - 7. Keep your goals realistic.
 - 8. Consider finding an accountability partner.
 - 9. Keep track of your progress.
 - 10. Remember, each new day is a new beginning.
