PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following:

1. How do you generally introduce yourself to new friends? What are the things you share to reveal your identity?
2. Read Philippians 3:4-5. How do you think Paul might have introduced himself before his conversion? What does the term "servant" reveal about Paul's post-conversion view of himself? Do you share Paul's identity as a servant of Christ Jesus? How does your life evidence a servant relationship to Jesus Christ?
3. One of the obvious evidences of genuine faith is obedience to God's commands [See John 14:21]. Describe in your own words the relationship between faith and obedience. Does your life reflect a proper balance between faith and obedience? If not, take a moment now to seek God's forgiveness, repent of your sin, and yield your entire life to God as His bondservant.
4. The believers in Rome were a despised and persecuted minority. What impact do you think it had on them to know that they were called and loved by God? What impact does it have on you to know that you are called and loved by God? Do you really believe it? Why or why not?
5. What's the relationship between grace and peace? Is it possible to have one without the other? Are you experiencing God's peace in your life right now? If not, take a moment right now to read and pray through Philippians 4:6-7.
