 - a. The firstfruits of the grain harvest - Num 15:17-21
 - b. The root of a tree - Matt 3:10

PERSONAL APPLICATION

Take some time this week to consider the following questions:

1. Have you ever felt rejected by God? What were the circumstances? Do you still feel rejected? Why/why not?
2. Paul's own conversion gave him hope for his own people, the nation of Israel. How does your personal conversion to Christ give you confidence that He can save anyone?
3. In Romans 11:5-6 Paul emphasizes that salvation is the result of God's grace. Is there an area in your life where you are still striving, like the Jews, to be good enough to merit God's favor? What does this kind of striving produce?
4. Have you ever hardened your heart to God? What happened? Is there any area in your life where you are currently hard toward God? Are you willing to soften your heart today?
5. One of God's objectives in saving the Gentiles was to arouse the Jews to envy and emulation. Does your relationship with the Lord arouse envy and jealousy in the lives of unbelievers? If not, what is preventing your life from drawing people to Jesus?
6. Take a moment to pray for the salvation of the nation of Israel and unbelieving friends and family who have yet to receive the Gift of Life. Humbly thank Him for your own salvation.
