

4. Jesus Heals A Women and a Girl

Jesus takes a personal interest in each one of us.

- Jairus had faith in Jesus' touch, and he expressed that faith.
- A woman in the crowd has a desperate need—an outcast in her social life, worship life and family life.
- She hears about Jesus and comes to Him on her own.
- Jesus wants her to have a personal relationship with Him and that He freely gave to her.
- The trembling woman gives her simple testimony as she falls at Jesus' feet. Others now hear.
- She has a new relationship with God and a new relationship with Him.

Jesus has the right to choose what He brings into our lives.

- Jairus' faith is stretched as his little girl dies.
- We are to stop being afraid and choose to believe God that He is in control and will not abandon us.
- Jesus tenderly restores life to the girl and gives her back to her parents.

Jesus stopped His public ministry to heal 2 women.

- One publicly; the other privately.
- One was socially dead; the other physically dead.
- One touched Him and was healed without a word; the other He touched and spoke to when she was healed
- One was an outcast; the other was loved within her family circle
- Both were unclean.
- Both were healed instantly and completely, receiving new life.
- Both were beyond human help and without hope.
