

What is The Theology Program?

The Theology Program seeks to give people who may never have the call to full-time seminary an opportunity to take part in the same type of theological education. We are committed to the Reformation principle that the study of the Bible and theology is a right and privilege for everyone, not just pastors and professional theologians.

“The Theology Program will give you a fresh perspective of God, the Bible and the Christian life.”

“The Theology Program is amazing, both in the depth of its theology and in the way it is organized. Seldom does a pastor find a program for his congregation with such serious content, historical depth, biblical exposition and academic integrity that is accessible to laity and yet challenging to the learned believer . . . If your church is in need of a good curriculum for training its members in the Word of God, you have found it.” -Matt Jones, Sr. Pastor

“This Program offers so much more than folks could get in any other forum. TTP will challenge their thinking rather than confirm their prejudices. May our gracious Lord use TTP to raise up serious thinkers, people who will engage society and life from a theological perspective.” -Daniel Wallace,

Professor of New Testament Studies,
Dallas Theological Seminary

Course Descriptions

Introduction to Theology

Learn to think theologically in order to construct a Christian worldview.

- Why are there so many denominations?
- Does God still speak today?

Bibliology and Hermeneutics

Learn the history of the Bible and principles for interpretation.

- Is the Bible that we have now the same as when it was written?
- Which books belong in the Bible?

Trinitarianism

Learn about the existence and attributes of God and discover the mystery of the Trinity.

- How do we know God exists?
- How can we explain the Trinity?

Humanity and Sin

Learn about the nature of humanity and sin and the essential differences between men and women.

- How did God create man?
- What happens to the soul at death?

Soteriology

Learn about why Christ died on the cross and how people can be saved through His death.

- What is predestination?
- What is the difference between Roman Catholics and Protestants?

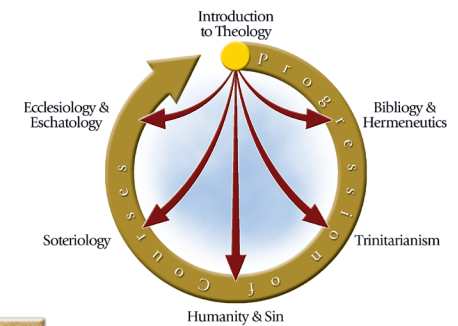

Ecclesiology and Eschatology

Learn about the nature of the Church and what the Bible says the future holds.

- What is the Church?
- Do we know when Christ is coming?

Course Sequence

Introduction to Theology is the prerequisite to all other courses. The Theology Program is best taught in proper sequence as each course builds upon knowledge gained in previous courses. The student develops their own theological understanding as he follows a natural progression of learning.

Course Materials

The Theology Notebook - Each student will receive an in-depth training workbook with detailed notes, graphics, and information.

The Theology Leader's Guide - The course is best taught in a group setting lead by a leader who can facilitate each session's lesson time. This guide includes a full set of printed PowerPoint slides with complete teacher's notes. Also included is a CD with the digital files of the PowerPoint presentation, the student's notes, discussion Q&A, vocabulary tests, and course syllabus.

The Theology DVD Set - Each course is available on DVD with full classroom lectures. Students will want this for their future reference and personal study.