

DETAILS:KeyWds/Phrases Romans 14:10-12; 1 Corinthians 3:5-15; Revelation 20:11-15	NOTES/QUESTIONS/CROSS REFERENCES	10 WORDSUBJECT SENTENCE DIVISIONS/SECTIONS	AIM :Author’s original idea; Present day intent “know then/know now	APPLICATION QUES (measure used to determine if understood lesson)
(I.)Rom. 14:10-12 why judge/set at naught your brother; all stand; knee bow/give account before judgment seat of Christ (II.)I Cor. 3:5-15 v.8 every man receives own reward according to own labor; v. 9 we are laborers together (ye God’s husbandry; building) vs. 10 take heed how build; foundation is Christ vs. 12-15 every man’s work be made manifest; revealed by fire; if abide receive reward; if burned suffer loss but he saved (III.) Rev. 20:11-15 “the I saws” v. 11 ..HIM that sat on great white throne; ‘ v. 12 dead, small; great; dead judged according to works; v. 15 cast into lake of fire	? set at naught-NASB says regard in contempt. ?are these thoughts the same ?what is judgment seat of Christ; what happens there; who will be there; why is there one ?Is judgment of others always wrong? If yes, why do I then judge? If no, then how do I judge biblically? ?what are the rewards can “men” look forward to !find husbandry definition ?what works will abide (remain) what works will burn ?why will man be saved— what does this mean – are all saved ? who are the people in Rev. 20? Why works judged? ?why cast into lake of fire; what is lake of fire?	Subject Sentence: Everyone will face a judgment after death Divisions/Sections I. All face judgment II. The Believers Judgment III. The Great White Throne Judgment. PRINCIPLES: Christ will judge believers God will judge unbelievers Everyone will be judged Works are judged	E= Every man will be judged for his works in the next life, some to everlasting life and some to everlasting punishment. P= In this life we are storing up works that will one day be judged. . (cognitive = head)  The student will recognize that his works and his life will be open and bare before Christ or God one day.  (affective = heart)  The student will commit themselves to choosing works that have eternal value..  (behavioral = hands)  The student will make a personal judgment of his/her works and be able to answer the question what they would say to God about them.	I. Are you living as if you will face a Holy God one day? What do you need to do today to change to be better prepared? II. Will you commit to choosing those works that will withstand the fires of judgment? III. At which throne will you stand? Will you choose this day to stand at the Bema Seat and not the White Throne?